Off with your hats when the War Heroes pass on Memorial Day. All honor to them. It is a day for prayer and Thanksgiving. They fought to save the Union, to free Cuba and then to make the World safe for democracy. Give Old Glory to the breeze and in every way show your respect for the men who risked their lives that you might enjoy peace in a free and united America. Tell the story of their deeds to your children and then have your children repeat it to their children.

JURY WILL SOON DECIDE FATE OF ZIMMERMAN GIRL

Closing Arguments in Trial of Girl Held For Murder Being Made Today

(By Associated Press) Springfield, Mass., May 29.—Arguments in the trial of Miss Jennie Zimmerman, charged with the murder of Dr. Zimmerman her cousin, August 7, last, began today. Attorney McVea, who is counsel for the defense began with a recital of the life story of Miss Zimmerman. Before he had proceeded for the defendant was in tears and many women among the spectators were weeping. The attorney said Miss Zimmerman was the daughter of a drunken father and an insane mother, the oldest of eight children. When she was fourteen years old the burden of supporting the family fell upon her shoulders. None of the children went beyond the seventh grade in school. The family lived in poverty and finally the father disappeared. Jennie, the attorney said, retained her reputation unblemished and assisted in charitable enterprises. The attorney said her acquaintance and growing and growing intimacy with Dr. Zimmerman, who first attended her in an illness in 1918 and led up to the assault Jennie alleged he committed after first giving her a drug.

CAVALRY TROOPS PATROL STREETS IN CITY OF BRISTOL

Rhode Island Governor Protects Citizens Against Riots By Striking Rubber Company Workmen

(By Associated Press) Bristol, R. I., May 28.—Troops of cavalry and coast artillery patrolled the streets of Bristol today to prevent a repetition of the rioting that occurred yesterday when striking workmen of the National India Rubber Company sought to prevent workers from entering the plant. Governor Beckman has declared the city "in a state of insurrection and was expected to arrive here to inspect the situation. Troops C and D and the Fourth Company, Coast Artillery Guard were on duty last night and orders were issued by the governor for another artillery company to proceed to Bristol. No effort was made to open the plant today but it was expected today attempts would be made to resume operations on Tuesday after the holiday. During the night cavalry guards dispersed several groups of strikers near the factory, but aside from this there was no disturbance. The strike has been in progress at the plant for about three weeks resulting from a wage dispute and operations have been suspended early this week. The entire plant including the executive department, in all about 300 workers and carpenters, and others had been employed, was shut down at the demand of the strikers. Yesterday these 300 workers were asked to report for work again and the trouble began when they attempted to enter the plant. Cosmo Forti, the only one seriously wounded of the three men who were shot in the clash with factory guards, was reported in a critical condition at the Rhode Island Hospital and the doctors had only but slight hopes of his recovery. Eighty additional state guardsmen arrived from Providence early today.

PRES. WILSON GIVES HIS VIEWS ON PLATFORM

Approves the Virginia State Platform, With League of Nations Without Reservations.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, May 28.—President Wilson's conception of the 1920 campaign was illuminated today in a letter made public at the White House, expressing the President's full accord of the platform recently adopted by the Virginia democratic state convention. The League of Nations plank calling for the ratification of the Versailles treaty without reservations which would impair its value was approved and he also mentioned the planks on finances, reconstruction, a general proposition to revise the tax laws and declared against an indiscriminate bonus. The letter was to former Secretary of the Treasury Glass of Virginia, who drafted the state platform. Its publication is generally regarded as the stand that the President and his friends will take in the convention platform in San Francisco. The President did not mention the national platform directly, but he wrote that Virginia had set forth the attitude of the party.

ALLIES OPPOSE ANY REVISION OF TREATY

(By Associated Press)
Paris, May 28.—Premier Millerand, in answer to inquiries in the Chamber of Deputies today on the San Remo and Hythe conferences, declared that no definite agreement was entered into by the Allies. They met for a preliminary conversation. The Premier asserted that the allies would oppose any revision of the treaty of Versailles, and declared that the disarmament of Germany was the first step necessary to ensure peace.

Washington, May 28.—Favorable report was ordered by the Senate Interstate Commerce committee on the Poincaré bill designed to prevent interference of transportation by strikes of railroad employees. The committee attached the anti-strike provision, and the bill is not expected to be considered until after the National convention. The bill would make it a felony for any proven attempt made to obstruct or prevent interstate commerce, or by interfering with men engaged in the work. The anti-strike clause provides for ten punishment of one or more men who sought to intimidate to prevent men from carrying on the work.

SIX MONTHS I COULD NOT WORK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Me Strong and Able to Work—I Recommend It To All My Friends.

Bayonne, N. J.—"I had pains in back and legs so that I could not stand erect for some time. I felt so tired all the time, had bad headaches, and for six months I could not work. I was treated by a physician and took other remedies but got no relief. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I had a bottle and now I am well and strong and now able to do my work. I cannot thank you enough and I recommend your medicine to my friends who are sick."—Mrs. SUSIE SACATANSKY, 25 East 17th St., Bayonne, N. J.
It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for over forty years, and today hold a record for such wonderful success as does Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

a democrat and wishes this year to vote a republican ticket in the primary, must at this meeting ask to have his name registered as a republican. The same hold true of a republican who has voted in a primary, and who wishes to vote for a democrat. This does not apply to any person who has never voted in a primary, they may ask for what ever ticket they wish on the date of the primary, but once allied with either party, they cannot vote in the primaries on any other ticket until they have qualified.
At the last session of this kind the Registrars made but one change; a democrat to a republican choice.

Farm Workers Better Treated.

It is pleasing to read that the people of the wheat belt are planning to make the life of the army of harvesters more comfortable in some respects this year than it has been in past seasons.

This is a step in the right direction. All are familiar with the way in which the army of wheat harvesters moves from south to north during the harvest season. Beginning in the southern part of the wheat belt, where the crop ripens earliest, the workers sweep northward until the harvest is completed, their movement corresponding to the ripening of the crop in the different sections. It is a good arrangement, supplying help when and where it is needed, and is mutually beneficial to the harvesters and the farmers.

These traveling workers have always been well fed. Farmers, east or west, do not ask hungry men to work for them. The harvesting army is made up of men from all parts of the West, among them being men from the cities who can earn bigger pay than they can at their regular employment and have a healthful country outing at the same time. Eastern people have no idea of the rush and whirl in the western wheat fields during the harvest time.

But while the sturdy workers have never lacked good food and plenty of it, the question of lodging was another matter, and in many instances it has been necessary for hundreds of them to sleep in the open. This could be endured in pleasant weather, but there have been times when it was a hardship. It is to meet this condition that action is being taken, and, according to announcement, the harvesters will be well sheltered this year.

Just how this is to be done is not known here, but it is to be presumed it will be done by the use of tents, which would seem to be the most simple and practical way. There is no reason why tenting facilities cannot be provided and moved with the army of laborers as they sweep from south to north over the vast wheat fields. In this way the men can be made comfortable and their health protected, and a valuable precedent will be established by the harvest season of 1920.

It is said that in some places the plan provides for evening entertainments for the men. This may be all right if practical and not too expensive, but it is not strictly necessary. Most men have no particular longing for entertainment after a day in the harvest field beyond that which is afforded by a good pipe. However, if something of this kind can be introduced without detriment to the army's "morale," well and good.

The chief thing is to see that the workers are properly cared for, by night as well as by day, and that this is to be attempted in good news. Conditions of employment are one of the prime elements in the labor world today and it is proper that the men who reap the golden harvests should be made as happy, comfortable and contented as possible while performing their arduous labors.

This news from the West is more cheering than accounts of tornadoes, fires and floods. Everything is on a big scale in the western country, and it is to be expected that this step will prove both agreeable and beneficial to all concerned.

STORER POST'S
FIRST MEMORIAL
52 YEARS AGO

The first public appearance of Storer Post No. 1, G. A. R., was fifty-two years ago tomorrow and the soldiers and sailors' graves were decorated at the North and South cemeteries for the first time.

There were eighty or more veterans in the procession which was headed by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, the whole being under command of Post Commander Daniel J. Vaughan.

It was the tribute of the returned veterans to their fallen comrades in the army and navy. Had not the returning soldiers taken hold of this matter no flowers would have been strewn over the graves of the dead or no public memorial service been held.

Memorial Day grew out of the Civil War and sentiment immediately following it, and was almost everywhere in the hands of those who served in the war. It was gradually losing its hold upon others as the old soldiers passed on and as their number grew smaller year by year the observance was threatened with passing away also. But now its reverence and significance has broadened and especially since the World War it has been raised from the original level of remembrance of the dead of the Civil War to remembrance of the dead of all wars.

Here is the old Portsmouth baseball live wire who covered second base. He team of 1888 which was the pennant in the New England Interstate League in the country and was ready for any and later succeeded Worcester or some kind of sport that came his way. As a other club in the New England league, runner he had few equals. Portsmouth's star battery was Davis and on the old grounds on South street Kittredge and the fans were always pleased to watch them work. No lunch park. Nearly every one of three players had a better time than the men in this picture did in looking the season in Portsmouth. Kittredge turned out to be one of the best catchers in the country and with Willis, as pitcher, they played several seasons with the Boston Nationals. Later, Kittredge joined the Chicago team which he also managed for a few seasons. Murray went to Philadelphia and became the manager of that team for several years. Canavan played with Baltimore and other leading teams of the Eastern League. Leighton was an outfielder for Portsmouth and other New England leagues before jumping into the big show.

Everybody who saw this team in action will remember Kittredge, the other have goods in freight cars at present on station in this city or who anticipate the arrival of goods by freight during Saturday. Sunday or Monday to get busy and remove the goods if possible. The idea is that the present shortage of cars is fast becoming a serious handicap and in view of the fact that many plan to take part of Saturday and the two following days as a week-end vacation the conditions are quite liable to become even worse unless some precaution is taken.

NEW WAY OF CUTTING
HIGH COST LIVING
AT KITTERY POINT

During the dark hours of the night somebody in Kittery is cutting the high cost of living at the expense of a resident near Ferry Lane.

It is a new line of thieving in the town and is applied to larceny of family food from the porch. Meat, milk, vegetables, butter, anything that happens to be out for cooling purposes is annexed and moved away.

The thief can be classed as a clean up man. He calls after the midnight hour and takes time to apply a can opener to canned goods. Everything in the cat line looks good to him and the family have been in the position of "Old Mother Hubbard" many times of late.

Some night somebody will wish that they had done a cash payment business with a regular grocer and butcher and dined at their own fireside on legitimate purchases in the food line.

FIRST SILENT POLICEMAN IS BADLY INJURED

Lost Out Against Big Truck With Smashed Head and Broken Back.

The first new silent policeman was injured on Friday at the corner of Congress and Middle streets. He got slung the very first day he was on duty. He looked good and strong and able to hold his own against most any vehicle that dared to bang up against him, but he was not as good as he looked.

A big express truck hit him on the port side and one would never know he was one of the new squad that loomed up at one of the most important highway junctions of the city.

The injuries consist of a cracked head and broken back. His underpinning was all but escaped laceration. He was a sad sight as ambulances and bystanders observed him piled up near the curb opposite the public library. He may be back on the job and he may not.

CLEAN AND SAFE MILK

A safe milk supply is equally of the same vital importance to the community as is

A SAFE WATER SUPPLY

Milk is the cheapest and most perfect food. It is also a good food for germs. It is absolutely known that raw milk may cause typhoid fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, sore throat, and tuberculosis.

PERFECTLY PASTEURIZED MILK IS SAFE

It is milk that has been quickly heated to a temperature of 145 degrees—held at that temperature for 30 minutes—then quickly cooled to below 50 degrees and kept cold. That's all. Science has proven that this process kills the dangerous bacteria that may be in the milk.

The milk is not altered chemically—it is unchanged in food value, digestibility or flavor. But it does make the milk SAFE—and, if kept cold, greatly prolongs its keeping.

Content that the people of Portsmouth are not less progressive than other cities—many communities demand it exclusively—we have made available for this city an adequate supply of clean, fresh, perfectly pasteurized milk.

A modern central creamery, equipped with the latest scientific apparatus for the sanitary, economical handling and refrigerating of milk and cream, and the washing and sterilization of cans and bottles on which we offer this superior product at no advanced price—15¢ per qt.

SCHOOL CHILDREN HOLD IMPRESSIVE SERVICES

With an impressive ceremony, witnessed by a large number of people, the school children of the city, held their annual Memorial services for those who gave their lives that their country might be saved.

The ceremonies were held at the Junkins avenue bridge and the Play Ground, and all of the schools of the city including the St. Patrick, Whipple and the elementary schools down to grade four, and they made an impressive picture as they grouped on the Play Ground in their school formations.

The St. Peter's Relief Corps had charge of the services at the Junkins avenue bridge, and here the usual impressive service for those who went down in the sea were held. The Whipple school girls assisted in this, singing several selections, and then a delegation from each school threw into the water the wreaths of flowers.

The children then, marched to the Play Ground where formations were taken in front of the first base bleachers.

All of the schools sang together "The Star Spangled Banner" and this was followed by the Flag Salute.

The schools then sang "Speed Our Republic" and then the different rooms recited in unison patriotic memory gems.

The exercises closed with the singing of America and the formation was dismissed, each school leaving the ground in their regular order. Supt. W. H. Clayton was in general charge assisted by the Principals and Teachers and Mr. Ernest Blinck had charge of the singing.
